Mr. A. Warren Suit offered the following presmble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, and ordered published in the Heraid and k press:

Whereas, the chizons of the Thirteenth ward have learned, with great pleasure, that the American party in Convention at Philacelphia assembled, have, by the will of the majority, chosen our much respected citizen, New York's tavorite son, asiliard Fillmore, for President, and Andrew Jackson Donelson, a noble son of a noble size, for Vice President, at once uniting the North and Fouth upon that al-lumpertant maxim:

"United we stand, and divided we tall." And whereas, we regard the above candidates as the true and fearlies exponents of American principles, believing them to be men of a purely rational character, whose only interest is that of our country and its cheribed institutions, who if elected, will guard and protect them for us. Therefore Recoved, That we will use every and all exertions in our newer to promote the object of our club, to increase its numbers by bringing in citizens without distinction of party, carnestly recomms ridne to all who feel an interest in the welfare of their country to unite with us to sid and assist in securing the election of me n of principle and talent, and to stand united from union there is strength, shoulder to shoulder, until the victory is curs, and the American people triumphant over party.

party. The President presented the club with the American color, at the same time expressing the bope that it might ever be carried on to victory. After some remarks from Aldermen J. H. Briggs. J. T. Brooks and others, interspersed with songs from Carpenter and Horton, the club adounted, to meet again at the call of the efficers. H. OLAY ROBERTSON, Secretary.
